

Botanical Bundle Dye Workshop

Saturday, August 3, 2019

Instructor: Julie Beeler

Location: Dye Studio @ 554 Sunnyside Rd., Trout Lake, WA

Time: 1-4:30 pm

Cost: $60 (Includes $10 material fee and $50 donation)

Participants: Limited to 15 people

About the Botanical Bundle Dye Workshop

Join Julie Beeler, instructor at PNCA and OCAC, at her Trout Lake studio and flower farm, Bloom & Dye. We will harvest farm fresh flowers to create bright bold accent colors and spend our time dyeing a linen table runner using large quantities of flowers for a rich color palette. Everyone will learn the science between different plants 'tinctoria' and experience the bounty of natural dyes. We will play with different Japanese shibori techniques to create design patterns and you will bring home a beautifully hand-dyed linen table runner.

No previous experience with natural dyes, eco printing or textiles is necessary. Open to adults of all ages and young people 12 and up accompanied by an adult. Photos from past workshops can be found here.

About Mt. Adams Institute Community Workshops:

Mt. Adams Institute's Community Workshops offer wonderful opportunities for us to build community, explore the natural beauty of the Columbia River Gorge, highlight local skills and passions, and raise scholarship funds for Cascade Mountain School students. The costs of the workshop directly contribute to the Cascade Mountain School scholarship fund, which provided over 40 youth 6-18 years old in the Columbia Gorge and Portland with over $13,400 in scholarships to attend our summer camps in 2018. We greatly appreciate the time and contributions of our Community Workshop instructors, many of whom donate their time to support our scholarship efforts.
